ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESOURCES

Pages removed from public record: 538-594 Received Date: 06/16/2026

Previous versions / updates:

Pursuant to California Government Code § 7927.005 and Title 14 of the California Code of Regulation § 969.1(a)(2)(F); exempts archaeological information from the California Public Records Act and provides authority for state policy to keep archaeological information confidential. This exemption provides for stronger protection of archaeological site location information from artifact hunting, excavations and or vandalism.

GROWTH AND YIELD "TRADE SECRETS"

Pages removed from public record: Received Date:

Previous versions / updates:

Pursuant to California Government Code § 7297.705, Evidence Code §§ 1040 & 1060, & Civil Code §§ 3426 et seq.; where the owner of the information considers it a trade secret, can refuse disclosure as long as it is not to conceal fraud, and preserving the confidentiality of the information outweighs the necessity for disclosure. This allows private parties to maintain competitive advantages with internal processes or products developed and invested by them which could risk their independent economic value if disclosed.

DISTRIBUTION AND CONTACT

Copies of the information are maintained in a confidential file at the Region office and have been sent to the appropriate Forest Practice Unit office and State Archeologist for a detailed review. Please contact the Review Team office as listed above with any questions or concerns.
